JOINT NOTICE OF INTENT TO PARTICIPATE AND COMMENTS ON THE EXISTENCE OF CONTROVERSIES

I. Joint Notice of Intent to Participate.

O. Atlas Enterprises, Inc., Phil Slater Associates, Sandra Carter Productions, Inc., SGI Worldwide Television and Film, Inc., and Ward Productions Inc. (each a "Claimant," collectively, the "Claimants"), hereby give notice by counsel, that the Claimants intend to participate in any proceeding(s) involving the Phase I allocation of 2001 Cable royalties, and in any Phase II proceeding(s) involving the allocation of the Claimants' share of the 2001 Cable royalties.

II. Comment on the Existence of Controversies.

A. Background.

On February 17, 1999, O. Atlas Enterprises, Inc. ("Atlas"), authorized Artist Collections Group, a California limited liability company, d/b/a Worldwide Subsidy Group ("WSG"), of Beverly Hills, California, among other things, to file cable retransmission royalty claims for television programming broadcast during 2000.

On July 26, 2001, Phil Slater Associates ("Phil Slater") authorized Independent Producers Group ("IPG") of San Antonio, Texas to file cable retransmission royalty claims for television programming broadcast during 2000, only. See attached Mandate Agreement, dated July 26, 2001.

On August 3, 1999, Sandra Carter Productions, Inc. ("Carter"), authorized WSG, among other things, to file cable retransmission royalty claims for television programming broadcast during 2001.

On August 4, 1998, Jay Ward Productions Inc., also known as Ward Productions, Inc. ("Ward") authorized WSG, among other things, to file cable retransmission royalty claims for television programming broadcast during 2001.

On August 5, 2002, the Copyright Office received WSG's cable retransmission royalty claim, dated July 31, 2002, which identified Atlas, Carter, Ward, and "Over the Edge-TV" as four of the multiple cable retransmission claimants represented by WSG. "Over the Edge-TV" is not a Claimant, but the title of a television program owned by SGI Worldwide Film and Television, Inc. ("SGI"). SGI is the Claimant's correct name.

On August 5, 2002, the Copyright Office received IPG's claim dated July 31, 2002, identifying Phil Slater as one of IPG's multiple cable retransmission claimants represented by WSG, a Texas limited liability company, d/b/a IPG. IPG's claim was identified as Claim No. 518.

Due to the criminal conviction and sentencing of an officer of IPG and WSG for filing fraudulent copyright retransmission royalty claims at the Copyright Office, and other circumstances, Claimants individually terminated their relationships with IPG or WSG prior to the docketing of this proceeding. Each Claimant individually instructed IPG or WSG, as appropriate, to cease from filing claims on its behalf. Neither IPG nor WSG should be permitted by the Copyright Office to claim to represent the Claimants.

Phil Slater further instructed IPG to notify all copyright collectives that IPG was no longer authorized to continue to, or to claim, to represent Phil Slater. See Letter to Marian Oshita, from Phil Slater, dated April 11, 2003 (attached). Atlas, Carter, SGI and Ward gave WSG similar instructions. See Letter to Marian Oshita from Barbara Atlas, dated September 18, 2002; Letter to Marian Oshita from Sandra Carter dated September 19, 2002 (attached and redacted); Letter to Marian Oshita from Harry Owens dated May 1, 2003 (attached), and Letter to Marian Oshita from Tiffany Ward, dated September 19, 2002 (attached).

To date, IPG and WSG have failed to provide complete accountings, and in some cases failed to respond at all, to counsel or to some of the Claimants, which ironically, WSG and IPG assert are their clients. Even though Atlas, Carter, SGI and Ward each terminated their representation agreements with WSG or IPG, WSG, through its "Catalog List," continues to claim to represent Atlas, Carter, and Ward through July 31, 2003, June 30, 2003, and June 30, 2003, respectively. See attached "Catalog List." WSG claims that to represent "Over the Edge-TV" perpetually on its "Catalog List," despite the fact that SGI sent notice of termination to WSG on May 1, 2003. SGI has no record of ever retaining WSG's services. Despite requests made by SGI, WSG has failed to provide SGI with proof of its authority to represent that Claimant. WSG also failed to respond to Atlas' requests to provide proof of its authority to represent that Claimant. Phil Slater never authorized IPG to file retransmission royalty claims in 2001, but IPG did so on page 4 of Exhibit A of Cable Claim No. 518.

Since the terminations of representation with IPG and WSG, Claimants have authorized counsel to represent their interests before the Copyright Office and CARP in order to assist Claimants in retrieving their cable retransmission royalty distributions for 2001. As stated in the attached correspondence, Claimants have notified IPG and WSG separately that IPG and WSG will be compensated for services rendered in accordance with the terms of their individual representation agreements.

B. Controversies.

Claimants foresee two controversies that could develop with respect to the distribution of 2001 cable retransmission royalties:

1. IPG or WSG may attempt to represent Claimants whom neither is authorized to represent, or alternatively, contest counsel's representation of Claimants. In this filing, Counsel has provided the Copyright Office and the CARP with a copy of the correspondence terminating Claimants' relationships with IPG, and WSG. Upon request, Counsel will also provide additional correspondence authorizing counsel to represent each Claimant's interests before the Copyright Office and the CARP.

2. Claimants intend to claim their royalties in Phase I of this proceeding as a portion of the funds that historically have been distributed to Program Suppliers or to Public Television, as applicable. Atlas, SGI, and Ward intend to claim royalties that have been distributed historically to Program Suppliers. Phil Slater intends to claim royalties that have been distributed historically to Public Television. Sandra Carter intends to claim its royalties as portions of the Programs Suppliers and Public Television claimants, as applicable for its commercial and public television programming. Claimants, Atlas, Carter, SGI and Ward, intend to resolve any potential controversy over the distribution of those royalties with the Motion Picture Association of America ("MPAA") as soon as possible. In 2002, counsel for Claimants and counsel for MPAA initiated discussions and are hopeful that any Phase I controversies can be resolved quickly. If the Phase I controversies are resolved quickly, then Claimants are confident that any Phase II controversy will be resolved shortly thereafter. Potential controversies with PBS have been settled.

III. Certification of Authority and Consent.

The undersigned hereby certifies that, as of the date of submission of this Joint Notice of Intent to Participate, it has the authority and consent of each of the Claimants to represent them jointly in any Phase I or Phase II proceeding. All communications related to year 2001 cable retransmission royalties to any Claimant should be forwarded to undersigned counsel.

MANDATE AGREEMENT

The undersigned claimant hereby grants and assigns Independent Producers Group ("IPG") the exclusive right to apply for and collect on behalf of the undersigned (and all beneficial and/or legal owners of copyright identified on the attached Exhibit "A", collectively, the "Claimants") all monies distributed by the United States Copyright Office and the Copyright Arbitration Royalty Panel ("CARP") attributable to 2000 cable and satellite retransmission royalties distributed pursuant to 17 U.S.C. Sections 111 and 119, under the following terms and conditions:

1. The undersigned agrees, on behalf of itself and all beneficial and/or legal owners of copyright identified on the attached Exhibit "A", to accept the distribution methodology published at the IPG web site "www.independentproducers.org", hereby incorporated by reference.
2. Promptly upon IPG's request therefor, the Claimants shall provide IPG with an alphabetical list of program titles owned or distributed by the Claimants for which the Claimants retain the right to collect cable and satellite retransmission royalties.
3. IPG shall be entitled to establish all necessary and reasonable procedures required in order to accurately distribute retransmission royalties to the appropriate claimants.
4. IPG, its officers, agents or employees shall not be liable to the Claimants or to any person, firm or corporation for any act or omission in the prosecution of Claimants' claims.
5. The undersigned warrants that the undersigned retains the exclusive right to enter into this agreement and to apply for and collect cable and satellite retransmission royalties, as applicable, on behalf of the Claimants for the program titles provided to IPG.
6. In the event that the Claimants and another party make claim to the same program title, IPG will have no obligation to resolve such dispute, and shall be entitled to escrow funds attributable to the disputed program title until IPG is provided notification from the competing claimants of their resolution of such dispute, or until IPG is provided a ruling from a court of competent jurisdiction.
7. Any interpretation of this Agreement shall be governed by California law, subject to the exclusive personal and subject matter jurisdiction of state and federal courts located in Los Angeles County, California.
8. The undersigned, on behalf of itself and the Claimants, agrees to provide IPG all documentation necessary to substantiate the Claimants' right to collect retransmission royalties for program titles submitted by to IPG. All program title claims made by the Claimants shall be subject to IPG's good faith confirmation of the Claimants' entitlement thereto.

Dear Ms. Oshita:

The purpose of this letter is to terminate the Mandate Agreement dated July 7, 2001 ("Agreement"), by and between Phil Slater Associates and Independent Producers Group effective immediately. Neither Worldwide Subsidy Group d/b/a Independent Producers Group, nor any other agents, affiliates, or assignees of your organization(s) are authorized to claim to represent, to represent, or to file any more documentation for pending or future claims for my company in any domestic or international matters. If you have filed a notice of intent to participate in the year 2000 cable proceeding you are instructed to assign that claim that claim to Hammerman, PLLC. You will be compensated fully for any claims in which you have rendered services under the terms of our agreement up through television programming years 2000 for cable and satellite retransmission royalty claims filed at the United States Copyright Office, and any international claims you may have filed without my authorization. In accordance with that Agreement, my company only authorized Independent Producers Group to file claims for television programming year 2000.

Please provide me with a detailed status report, copies of, and an accounting for all claims filed on behalf of Phil Slater Associates domestically and internationally by April 30, 2002. That information and all further communications should be directed to our attorney:

Finally, I would appreciate it if you would notify all copyright collectives with whom you have filed royalty claims that you no longer represent my organization. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Philip D. Slater

Dear Ms. Oshita:

The purpose of this letter is to terminate any agreements by and between SGI Worldwide Film and Television, Inc., owner of the television program, "Over The Edge-TV," and Independent Producers Group effective immediately. Neither Worldwide Subsidy Group d/b/a Independent Producers Group, nor any other agents, affiliates, or assignees of your organization(s) are authorized to claim to represent, to represent, or to file any more documentation for pending or future claims for my company in any domestic or international matters.

I was informed that Independent Producers Group claims to represent the interests of "Over The Edge-TV" as noted in its Comments on the Existence of Controversies and Notice of Intent to Participate in Phase I and Phase II Hearings for Docket No. 2002-8, CARP CD 2000, dated September 26, 2002. I do not recall authorizing Independent Producers Group to represent my interests in any matters. If you have a copy of a representation agreement signed by me or my company, please provide a copy of that agreement to my attorney.

You are hereby instructed to assign any claims under that agreement that were made on behalf of "Over The Edge-TV" to Hammerman, PLLC. You will be compensated fully for any claims in which you have rendered services under the terms of any valid agreement up through television programming years 2000 for cable and satellite retransmission royalty claims filed at the United States Copyright Office.

Please provide me with a detailed status report, copies of, and an accounting for all claims filed on behalf of "Over The Edge-TV" and/or SGI Worldwide Film and Television, Inc. domestically and internationally by May 31, 2002. That information and all further communications should be directed to our attorney Edward S. Hammerman, Esq., Intermediary Copyright Royalty Services, a division of Hammerman, PLLC, 5335 Wisconsin Avenue, N.W., Suite 440, Washington, D.C. 20015-2052.

Finally, I would appreciate it if you would notify all copyright collectives with whom you have filed royalty claims that you no longer represent my company. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Harry Owens

Dear Ms. Oshita:

The purpose of this letter is to terminate our agreement dated July 30, 1998 and signed November 2, 1999, with Artist Collections Group d/b/a Worldwide Subsidy Group effective immediately. Your organization is not authorized to claim to represent, to represent, or to file any future claims for my company in any domestic or international matters. If you have filed a notice of intent to participate in the year 2000 cable proceeding you are instructed to withdraw that claim. You will be compensated for any claims in which you have rendered services under the terms of our agreement up to television programming years 1999 for cable claims, 2000 for satellite claims and 2001 for international claims.

Please provide me with a detailed status report, copies of and accounting for all claims filed on behalf of Jay Ward Productions and Ward Productions, Inc. domestically and internationally by September 30, 2002. In addition, I would appreciate if you would notify all copyright collectives with whom you may have filed royalty claims that you no longer represent my organization. Kindly direct each collective to send future correspondence to my attention at the address printed on this letterhead.

In accordance with our written agreement, your organization will be compensated at the agreed upon contingency fee for all royalty claims for which you have Settled to date. Should you have any questions, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Jay Ward Productions Inc
